In the Neutral Zone: February Issue Now Available

Montréal (Québec) - The February 2012 issue of In the Neutral Zone, the newsletter of the Sport Dispute Resolution Centre of Canada (SDRCC), is now available online at www.crdsc-sdrcc.ca/eng/media-newsletters.jsp. In this edition, Lorraine Lafrenière from CanoeKayak Canada shares her thoughts on the importance of the internal appeal processes for NSOs and on what makes for successful mediations. Two other contributors from Japan and Ireland bring an interesting international perspective of the SDRCC.

To better serve the Canadian sport community, the SDRCC welcomes comments and feedback regarding its newsletter and educational materials. This can be done by contacting Julie Stronach, Education and Communication Coordinator at jstronach@crdsc-sdrcc.ca.

About the SDRCC

The SDRCC is a not-for-profit corporation created by federal legislation and funded by Sport Canada. The mission of the SDRCC is to provide the sport community with a national alternative dispute resolution service and strengthen the culture of fairness in Canadian sport by resolving disputes quickly and efficiently and to provide expertise and assistance regarding alternative dispute resolution.
