The February Issue of In the Neutral Zone is now Available

Montréal (Québec) - The February 2019 issue of In the Neutral Zone, the newsletter of the Sport Dispute Resolution Centre of Canada (SDRCC), is now available online at: <http://crdsc-sdrcc.ca/eng/media-newsletters>

This edition provides insights for sport organizations considering the creation of a universal code of conduct, an initiative which would protect the integrity of sport and the safety of all its participants. In addition to the profile of an SDRCC mediator, the newsletter announces the hiring of new staff and also promotes the start of the Investigation Unit's activities, the launch of the Sport Law Connect Program in British Columbia and the presence of the SDRCC at the 2019 Canada Games in Red Deer.

To better serve the Canadian sport community, the SDRCC welcomes comments and feedback regarding its newsletter and educational materials. This can be done by sending a message to education@crdsc-sdrcc.ca.

About SDRCC

The SDRCC is a not-for-profit corporation created by federal legislation and funded by the Government of Canada. The mission of the SDRCC is to provide the sport community with a national alternative dispute resolution service and strengthen the culture of fairness in Canadian sport by resolving disputes quickly and efficiently and to provide expertise and assistance regarding alternative dispute resolution.
