The October Issue of In the Neutral Zone is now Available

Montréal (Québec) - The October 2020 issue of In the Neutral Zone, the newsletter of the Sport Dispute Resolution Centre of Canada (SDRCC), is now available online at: <http://crdsc-sdrcc.ca/eng/media-newsletters>

With the new 2021 Canadian Anti-Doping Program (CADP) taking effect next January, this edition provides athletes and sport organizations with a summary of six key changes to the CADP. In addition to the profile of an SDRCC mediator/arbitrator, it promotes the call for applications for mediators and arbitrators and announces some staff news.

To better serve the Canadian sport community, the SDRCC welcomes comments and feedback regarding its newsletter and educational materials. This can be done by sending a message to education@crdsc-sdrcc.ca.

About SDRCC

The SDRCC is a not-for-profit corporation created by federal legislation and funded by the Government of Canada. The mission of the SDRCC is to provide the sport community with a national alternative dispute resolution service and strengthen the culture of fairness in Canadian sport by resolving disputes quickly and efficiently and to provide expertise and assistance regarding alternative dispute resolution.
